

Operations Director Amanda M. Eversely, is an experienced educator of over 12 years, with a MS in School Supervision & Administration from The Johns Hopkins Univ., as well as a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from Minn. State Univ. Amanda says she enjoys her role because: "I like being able to help children develop social and conflict resolution skills that will be valuable assets for them throughout their lives."

